

WILLIAMS TOWNSHIP
NORTHAMPTON COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

RESOLUTION 2011-6

WHEREAS, in conjunction with other area Municipalities, Williams Township Board of Supervisors have determined that a written policy needs to be established regarding mail boxes, mail box posts and snow plowing; and

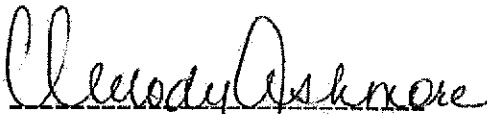

WHEREAS, that policy is - If the plow hits the mailbox or the post, the Township shall pay the owner of the mailbox the amount of $40.00. However, if either the post or mailbox is knocked down by the force of the snow, the Township will not make any payment to the owner of the mailbox.

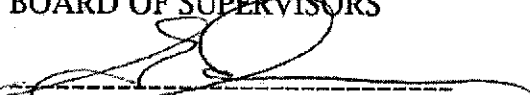

BE IT RESOLVED, effective immediately, if a Township plow hits either the mailbox or the post, the Township shall pay the owner of the mailbox the amount of $40.00. However, if either the mailbox or post is knocked down by the force of the snow, the Township will not make any payment to the owner of the mailbox.

SO RESOLVED AND ENACTED by the Board of Supervisors of Williams Township this 13th day of April, A.D. 2011
