Zoning Hearing Board Functions. The Zoning Hearing Board shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and render final adjudications and be responsible for the following:

Appeal of a Decision by the Zoning Officer.

- a. The Board shall hear and decide appeals where it is alleged by the appellant (the landowner affected, developer, an authorized agent, or applicant, any office or agency of the Township, or any person aggrieved) that the Zoning Officer has failed to follow prescribed procedures or has misinterpreted or misapplied any valid provision of this chapter or any valid rule or regulation governing the action of the Zoning Officer.
- b. All appeals which allege that the Zoning Officer has made an error shall be filed directly with the Township at the Township Building within 30 days of the Zoning Officer's alleged error, unless a different time limitation is provided under state law. This time limitation shall not apply to provisions for the revocation of a permit under § 27-109A (6).
- c. Such appeals shall be in writing, shall state fully the material facts and parties in the case, and shall clearly explain the reasons or provisions of the chapter on which the appeal is based.

Challenges to the Validity of the Chapter or Map.

- a. The Board shall hear challenges to the validity of this chapter filed with the Board in writing by the landowner affected, developer, an authorized agent, or applicant, any office or agency of the Township, or any person aggrieved.
- b. After the conclusion of the hearing(s), the Board shall make findings on all relevant issues of fact, conclusions of the law on issues that the Board deems to have been presented and necessary within the time limits specified by the Municipalities Planning Code.

Variance.

- a. The Board shall hear requests for variances filed with the Board in writing by any landowner, developer, an authorized agent, or applicant, any office or agency of the Township, or any person aggrieved (or any tenant with the permission of such landowner).
- b. The Board may grant a variance only within the limitations of state law. The Municipalities Planning Code provides that all of the following findings must be made, where relevant:
  - i. There are unique physical circumstances or conditions (including irregularity, narrowness, or shallowness of lot size or shape, or exceptional topographical or other physical conditions, peculiar to the particular property) and that the unnecessary hardship is due to such conditions and not the circumstances or conditions generally created by the provisions of this chapter in the neighborhood or district in which the property is located;
  - ii. Because of such physical circumstances or conditions, there is no possibility that the property can be developed in strict conformity with the provisions of this chapter, and a variance is therefore necessary to enable the reasonable use of the property;
  - iii. Such unnecessary hardship has not been created by the appellant;
  - iv. The variance, if authorized, will not alter the essential character of the neighborhood or district in which the property is located, nor substantially or permanently impair the appropriate use or development of adjacent property, nor be detrimental to the public welfare; and
  - v. The variance, if authorized, will represent the minimum variance that will afford relief and will represent the least modification possible of the regulation in issue.

In granting any variance, the Board may attach such reasonable conditions and safeguards as it may deem necessary to implement the purposes of this chapter.

Special Exception.

- a. The Board shall hear and decide all requests for special exceptions filed with the Board in writing by any landowner (or any tenant with the permission of such landowner, developer, an authorized agent, or applicant, any office or agency of the Township, or any person aggrieved), as provided in this chapter and in accordance with such standards and criteria contained in this chapter.

In granting a special exception, the Zoning Hearing Board may attach such reasonable conditions and safeguards, in addition to those expressed in the chapter, as the Board may deem necessary to implement the purposes and intent of this chapter.
